Father Ken's Notes

Fear Incarcerates.

Among the many marvelous wonders at the San Diego Zoo is the giraffe compound. Enclosed in what is called a natural habitat are several of these magnificent animals. They are every bit as tall and graceful as one might imagine. But they are far more massive and muscular than expected.

Tall somehow seems to imply thin. However, these great beasts are anything but skinny. Their necks are thicker and their legs shorter and more powerful than one anticipates. It is not difficult to see why one kick could send an ambitious lion packing.

Yet these massive, stately animals are enclosed in a small compound that seems far too restricting for their size and power, but no cage contains them. There are no bars or walls. There is but a simple, waterless moat, no deeper than the beast's knee, that circles the compound. Freedom is but a mere two steps away.

But they are trapped. All of them are. For not one of them will take the risk of stepping down and across for fear of breaking its neck. Every giraffe in the San Diego Zoo suffers from fear, which in life—incarcerates.

Father Ken

Be A Greeter!

GREETER MINISTRY

When the Greeter Ministry began at St. Margaret Mary Church, Toni Kratz and Eileen George agreed to serve as co-coordinators. They served with friendliness and hospitality in this beautiful ministry. When Eileen moved away from this area, Toni faithfully continued serving as Coordinator of the Greeters. Now that Toni has moved to be closer to her family, Linda Dolmajer has graciously accepted the position of Coordinator of the Greeters. We welcome Linda, and we thank all those greeters who continue to serve those who worship at St. Margaret Mary.

If you would like to serve as a greeter, please contact Mary Murphy at the parish office. We can assist you in getting your clearances, if you do not already have them. “Do not neglect to show hospitality, for by that means some have entertained angels without knowing it.” Hebrews 13:2

USHERS Needed

VOLUNTEER TODAY

MINISTRY OF USHERS

Men, women, teenage youth and families from St. Margaret Mary Parish are invited to serve their fellow parishioners and meet new people through this ministry. The Ushers provide a wonderful ministry of hospitality, helping to bring order to our services. Many of those who previously served as ushers are no longer able to do so. Please consider offering your time as an Usher or as an Ushering Family. Even though your life may be busy, Ministry Scheduler Pro (MSP) allows flexibility in how you will be scheduled.

For more information, please contact Mike at 724-889-3935.
