Father Ken's Note for the Fifth Sunday of Lent

The question, "Lord, will those who are saved be few?" has within it a hint of arrogance, as if the questioner were self-righteous and sure of his station among the elect. If the one who made the query spoke with pride and self-assurance, it is safe to say he had missed "the narrow door" by a country mile. Certainly, he had not been saved from his pride and self-centeredness. He probably hoped there wouldn't be too many to clutter the landscape of eternity.

The sharpness of Jesus' answer suggests his questioner was self-righteous and more than a little smug, and the words "many will seek to enter and will not be able" should have humbled the man who posed the question. Jesus was not easily deceived and he was forever puncturing the pretensions of the proud. Those who were sure of their own virtue and righteousness were whittled down to size in the presence of the Master.

The real saints of the earth always are more conscious of their short-comings than the sinners who think they are saints. More often than not the hypocrites are self-deceived. They really think they are better than they are, certainly among the few to be saved. But saved from what? Are they saved from their hostilities and from their superiority complexes? Are they saved from their prejudices and their hardness of heart? Are they saved from the rationalizations and their disposition to make the worse appear the better part?

Salvation is not simply a matter of believing the right things and saying the right words. It is a matter of being saved from the sins of disposition, from resentment, from pride. Jesus was a realist in suggesting many would miss the narrow door.

Our prayer for the Fifth Sunday of Lent:

Save us, O God, from the sins we are inclined to ignore in ourselves, from pride and arrogance, from hostility and prejudice, and teach us to walk humbly with you. Amen.

Father Ken

ST. ANTHONY GUILD EASTER BREAD DELIVERY

Your help is needed as the St. Anthony Guild continues our outreach to parishioners who are homebound, reside in nursing facilities or are ninety years young. We will meet Saturday, March 23 at 9:30 AM in MSP's Marble Hall to begin Easter bread deliveries.

You can make deliveries that day or shortly after at your convenience. We have limited our delivery area so we won't have to travel as far. All three parishes are represented, so we would like to see volunteers from the entire New Kensington Catholic Community. School and Confirmation service hours can be obtained.

Before embarking on your deliveries, there will be a short prayer service in Marble Hall with a review of new procedures for nursing homes and care facilities. Easter bread will be organized by addresses for easy pickup and delivery to nearby areas.

For more information and/or to volunteer, please contact Darlene Resek at 724-335-3536.

COMFORT BLANKET MINISTRY

The Comfort Blanket Ministry tries to reach out to our parish shut-ins, facility patients, those of our parishes with serious illnesses, those having surgeries, and those over 90 with prayerful lap blankets. We can only do this if we know of those in need of comfort and prayer.

If there is someone you know who is in these categories, please inform the parish office or contact me, Joyce Rapsinski, directly at 724-335-7492.

The Comfort Blanket Ministry could also use donations of cotton fabric to continue the ministry.

Catechesis Corner

CATECHESIS CORNER - HOW DO I MAKE A GOOD CONFESSION?

We do things that offend God and place obstacles between God and us. The best way to deal with sin is to receive the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Through this sacrament God forgives our sins and gives us the grace to help us not sin in the future. There are five steps to making a great Reconciliation. Step one is an Examination of Conscience. This is a time to remember when we have hurt ourselves, others and God. Step two is confessing our sins to God through the priest and expressing our sorrow to God. Step three, the priest gives us a penance. This is a prayer or kind deed he asks us to do to show God that we are truly sorry. Step four, we pray the Act of Contrition, which is a short prayer in which we tell God we will try not to sin again. Step five, the priest grants absolution by extending his hands over our head and praying this beautiful prayer:

God the Father of mercies, through the death and resurrection of his Son, has reconciled the world to himself and sent the Holy Spirit among us for the forgiveness of sins; through the ministry of the Church may God give you pardon and peace, and I absolve you from your sins in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

What consoling words to hear as we remember there is nothing we can do that will make God stop loving us. He wants us to come to Him for forgiveness, and He gave us this sacrament to do so.

Bishop Larry J. Kulick will lead a pilgrimage to the four Saint Joseph parishes and Blessed Sacrament Cathedral, to dedicate the Diocese of Greensburg to the guardianship and protection of Saint Joseph for the Eucharistic Revival Year of Mission in 2024, the Jubilee Year of 2025, and the 75th Anniversary of the Diocese of Greensburg in 2026. Patron of the Universal Church, Families, Workers, Immigrants, and a Happy Death, Saint Joseph nurtured the child Jesus in the first Eucharistic Adoration Chapel in his home in Nazareth, responded with faith each time he was called by God, and is a model to us of faithful discipleship as we live our mission as Eucharistic people. Each site along the pilgrimage will focus on a different aspect as Joseph as a faithful disciple, helping us to strengthen and rededicate our own relationship with Jesus Christ.
